Bertolucci - Giro

The Giro collection by Bertolucci is perfectly described as casual chic, incorporating simple construction and sophisticated curves. The Giro timepieces can easily transition from an elegant evening to daily luxury due to their versatile design. The 42mm case is polished and features 64 diamonds and sapphire crystal glass. The dial is available in black or white silvered opaline sunray guilloche with a polished swinging décor at 6 o'clock featuring 11 diamonds. A Swiss quartz movement powers this timepiece, and capabilities of the Giro collection include hours, minutes and water resistance to 50 meters. Retailing for $4,800 the Giro quartz watches come with a polished stainless steel bracelet with a triple folding buckle.

Carl F. Bucherer - Patravi ChronoDate Ladies

Carl F. Bucherer proves with the Patravi ChronoDate collection that women don't have to sacrifice attractive feminine style for practicality and function. The Patravi ChronoDate features a series of oval chronograph counters on the dial and is decorated with 48 diamonds on the steel bezel. The watch houses an automatic chronograph movement with a power reserve of 42 hours. The white dial is protected by a screw down crown and domed sapphire crystal. A large date display in double windows is located at 12 o'clock. The watch is priced at $13,000 on a leather strap.

Carl F. Bucherer - Patravi EvoTec BigDate

The Patravi EcoTec BigDate collection from Carl F. Bucherer is the first women's watch collection based on the CFB A10000 Manufacture movement, thus offering higher levels of mechanical and technical sophistication in ladies timepieces. The cushion-shaped case measures 39mm and houses a Caliber CFB A1003 Automatic 23-jewel movement with power reserve indication and power reserve up to 55 hours. A large date display is located between the 10 and 11 o'clock markers, while a small seconds display is right above the 6 o'clock marker. The stainless steel case features 56 full-cut diamonds, a sapphire crystal caseback and anti-reflective coating on both sides. A snake skin strap with a stainless steel folding clasp completes the chic timepiece that retails for $21,800.
